HARYANA STATE LAW COMMISSION

THIRTY SECOND REPORT

Recommendation to enact The Haryana State Commission For Senior Citizens Act, 2025.

21st November, 2025

Senior Citizens are the gems who have developed the nation for the coming generation. We are enjoying the proceeds/fruits of the plants grown by the Senior Citizens when they were in their young and middle age. The Senior Citizens have put in their entire life for the protection and development of the nation. Therefore, it becomes the duty of the nation to look after and to watch that the Senior Citizens shall not suffer from any kind of difficulty, problem and atrocity in their old age rather it is the duty of the nation/government to protect their rights and do all possible efforts for the welfare and protection of the Senior Citizens and the Government should undertake and carryout schemes for making use of their skills and experience for utilizing the same for the coming generation/general public.

The State of Kerala has already enacted the Kerala State Elderly Commission Act, 1925 for the establishment of Commission for the welfare of the elderly persons. Not only this, a Bill i.e. Bill No. LVII of 2019 for the establishment of a National Commission for Senior Citizens has also been introduced in the Rajya Sabha for consideration.

The Haryana State Law Commission, after due consideration, has come to the conclusion that there shall be the Haryana State Commission for Senior Citizens to protect the rights of Senior Citizens as well as for their welfare and look after the needs particularly their special requirements in the old age. Resultantly, the Haryana State Law Commission has decided to draft a Bill to provide for the establishment of the Haryana State Commission for Senior Citizens for giving guidelines in the matter related to the welfare and protection of Senior Citizens, to enable their rehabilitation, to undertake and carry out schemes and activities necessary for making use of their skills and experience for utilizing of the same for the coming generation/general public and to ensure the protection of rights of Senior Citizens and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto. Consequently, the Haryana State Law Commission has drafted the Haryana State Commission for Senior Citizens Bill, 2025 as follows for consideration by the State Government: -

THE HARYANA STATE COMMISSION FOR SENIOR CITIZENS BILL, 2025.

Bill

to provide for the establishment of Haryana State Commission for Senior Citizens for giving guidelines in matters related to the welfare and protection of the Senior Citizens and to enable their rehabilitation and to undertake and carry out schemes and activities necessary for making use of their skills and experience for utilizing it for the general public and to ensure the protection of rights of Senior Citizens and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

BE it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Haryana in the Seventy-sixth Year of the Republic of India as follows: —
